Some Job-Hunting Advice for Grads

1 School probably taught you a lot of things, but the business world's unique¹ set of rules may not have been part of the story. The following tips will make you have a good beginning in your career².

2 ① Pick a career instead of a job.

Looking for a job at will, because you majored³ in something or because you saw a listing that looks somewhat interesting, you'll risk getting started in a career that holds no real appeal⁴ for you, and then you'll have to leave it to find something else. Why not plan your career strategically⁵, just like you planned your education?

3 Start by doing a self-assessment⁶ that teaches you things about yourself that you might never have thought about — for example, what you like and don't like in a work environment, what means success to you, and what type of work would make you want to sit in traffic for hours just for showing up in the office. Knowing these things can help you know which jobs could be a good fit for you.

4 ② If you can't get a job right away, don't despair⁷.

If you start thinking of yourself as a victim⁸ or allow yourself to be inactive⁹, you will only hurt yourself. The best way for moving on is to recognize¹⁰ the reality of the situation, acknowledge¹¹ your feelings and find a way to cope effectively.

5 ③ Win your reputation as an able man, enthusiastic¹² employee.

Your company isn't responsible for your career growth; you are. Only ask your boss with a problem or complaint¹³ after you've tried all options¹⁴ for solving it yourself. When you do, be prepared with a solution¹⁵ with which you could solve the problem with his help. The words "I don't have time" should never escape your lips. If you know something needs to be done, do it without being urged¹⁶. Your boss will quickly come to see you as someone he can count on and a huge asset to the team. If you have conflicting priorities, ask your boss to help sort them out. (355 words)

Inquiry Learning

- 1 Pick a career instead of a job. 是“择业”而不是选择“工作”。
instead of 是个介词短语, 其意思为“代替……, 而不……”。 在语言的实际运用中, instead of 功能与连词十分相似, 现归纳如下:
- (1) 跟名词: I give him advice instead of money. 我给了他忠告而没有给他钱。
- (2) 跟代词: Will you go to the party instead of me? 你代我去赴宴好吗?
- (3) 跟形容词: Things are now better instead of worse. 情况不是更坏, 而是更好了。
- (4) 跟副词: He walks slowly instead of quickly. 他走得慢, 而不是快了。
- (5) 跟动词 (短语): That increased instead of decreased our courage. 那不但没有减弱反而增强了我们的勇气。
- (6) 跟动名词 (短语): We should encourage them instead of throwing cold water on them. 我们应该鼓励他们而不是对他们泼冷水。
- (7) 跟动名词复合结构: They must make up their own minds instead of our making their minds for them. 他们应当自己下决心而不是我们替他们下决心。
- (8) 跟介词短语: He laughed with (us) instead of at us. 他跟我们一起笑, 并不是嘲笑我们。
- (9) 跟 (to do) 不定式 (短语): I went to borrow a book instead of to buy one. 我去借了一本书, 而不是买了一本书。
- (10) 跟从句: He describes it as he saw instead of as it was. 他是按他们看到的樣子而不是按其本

- 来的面目来描述的它。
- 2 ...because you saw a listing that looks somewhat interesting... ……或者是因为你感到工作内容有趣……此处 that 引导的是一个限制性定语从句。
somewhat 意为“稍微，有点儿”，这是个程度副词，一般位于被修饰词前边，类似于 a little。e.g. Sorry, I am afraid we have arrived somewhat late. 抱歉，恐怕我们稍迟到了一会儿。
- 3 ...you'll risk getting started in a career that holds no real appeal for you... ……那么你可能会进入一个对你来说并没有真正吸引力的行业……
risk getting started 此处 risk 的用法为 risk doing sth. 意为“冒险做某事”。e.g. You're taking a big risk showing this to Kravis. 你在冒很大的危险把这给克拉维斯看。 hold no appeal for 对……无吸引力，appeal 意为“吸引力”。e.g. Does jazz hold any appeal for you? 你对爵士乐有兴趣吗？
- 4 Start by doing a self-assessment that teaches you things about yourself that you might never have thought about... 你可以先作个自我评估，这会让你了解许多你不曾注意到的事情……
此句中的两个 that 都引导的是定语从句。第一个定语从句的先行词是 self-assessment, 第二个定语从句的先行词是 things。
- 5 ...and what type of work would make you want to sit in traffic for hours just for showing up in the office. ……什么样的工作会让你宁愿忍受几小时的交通堵塞仅仅为了出现在办公室？ make 此处为使役动词的用法。make/have + 宾语 + 动词原形。e.g. Our parents made us brush our teeth three times a day. 父母让我们一天要刷三次牙。
- 6 Knowing these things can help you know which jobs could be a good fit for you. 了解这些能帮你决定哪些职业适合你。
Knowing these things 为动名词短语作主语。e.g. Taking exercise every morning helps make one healthy. 每天早晨做运动有助于人的健康。
- 7 The best way for moving on is to recognize the reality of the situation, acknowledge your feelings and find a way to cope effectively. 最好的办法是承认现实、承认自我感受，找一个有富有成效的方法来解决问题。 此句的主体结构为主系表结构，其中表语为两个并列的动词不定式短语。分别为 to recognize 和 to acknowledge。e.g. He acknowledged having made a mistake. 他承认他做错了。
- 8 When you do, be prepared with a solution with which you could solve the problem with his help. 当你这样做的时候，也要准备好一个解决方案，这个方案在老板的帮助下就能实现。
be prepared with a solution 为主句，是一个祈使句。you could solve the problem with his help 为定语从句，先行词为 solution。

Hot Career Fields

According to the career trends that the U.S. Bureau of Labor has predicted, in the next decade there will be three hot career fields: information technology (IT), medicine and fitness. The demand for workers in each of these fields is expected to double by 2010.

It is no surprise that one of the fastest growing areas of employment in recent years relates to computer technology. Technological advance ensures that this trend will continue for some time. System analysts, designers and developers, computer programmers, web developers, and information managers reflect the range of these career areas.

Another guaranteed growth area is in the medical field. The increasing number of healthcare jobs is directly attributable to the aging population and expansion of treatment available for medical conditions. Medical assistants and nurses, home health advisers, and health information technicians will be in greater demand. As a result, there will also be an expansion in the number of administrative and support roles needing to be filled.

The fitness field is also expected to expand in the next decade as people are becoming more and more health conscious in the face of mortality. New services are developing that are opening out into recognized career fields. Many of these are provided directly to the consumers. Fitness management professionals will continue to enjoy a high market demand, as well as physical training coaches.

The identification of future career trends is of some help when you are seeking a career direction. However, no matter how good the prospects are in an area of employment, your choices of career must depend primarily on an assessment of your own skills, abilities, personal qualities and interests. In career development, the ability to innovate is of great significance. For example, in the field of new energy vehicle maintenance, technicians need to continually innovate maintenance methods and technologies to address the new problems and challenges arising from the rapid development of new energy vehicles. This requires us to cultivate innovative thinking during the learning process, prepare for future careers, promote industry development through innovation, and contribute to building an innovative country.

Yesterday Once More

Karen Carpenter

When I was young I'd listen to the radio
Waiting for my favorite songs
When they played I'd sing along
It made me smile
Those were such happy times and not so long ago
How I wondered where they'd gone
But they're back again just like a long lost friend
All the songs I love so well
Every sha-la-la-la every wo-wo still shines
Every shing-a-ling-a-ling that they're starting to sing

So fine
When they get to the part
Where he's breaking her heart
It can really make me cry
Just like before
It's yesterday once more
Looking back on how it was in years gone by
And the good times that I had
Makes today seem rather sad
So much has changed
It was songs of love that I would sing to then
And I'd memorize each word
Those old melodies still sound so good to me
As they melt the years away
Every sha-la-la-la every wo-wo still shines
Every shing-a-ling-a-ling that they're starting to sing
So fine
All my best memories come back clearly to me
Some can even make me cry just like before
It's yesterday once more
Every sha-la-la-la every wo-wo still shines
Every shing-a-ling-a-ling that they're starting to sing
So fine
Every sha-la-la-la every wo-wo still shines
Every shing-a-ling-a-ling that they're starting to sing
So fine
